Dear Kathy,

I really have enjoyed knowing you. Even when, in science, you broke the test tube and I laughed - then you broke a watchglass and you won't even know how to do experiments. I also will remember when you broke two or three! I'S in Algebra and I got 5's. Oh, well, you can't win all the time! Good luck on your test. Let's see - what else can I write?! My pen just leaked - I have blue and green ink all over. I bet I flunked it. Oh, well!! Well, I'll just finish for others! Good luck and save some space for you are now.

Love ya,
Katie

Central High School

Independence-Monmouth, Oregon

Central

Steve Kent, Alan Reynolds and Tom Lindahl perform at student talent assembly.

Students at Central get an opportunity to perform at Talent and Pep assemblies, National School Assemblies, and other special events, giving them practice, experience, and poise.

Kirby Brumfield speaks to the student body on the importance of making our own decisions.

Julie Rice sings.

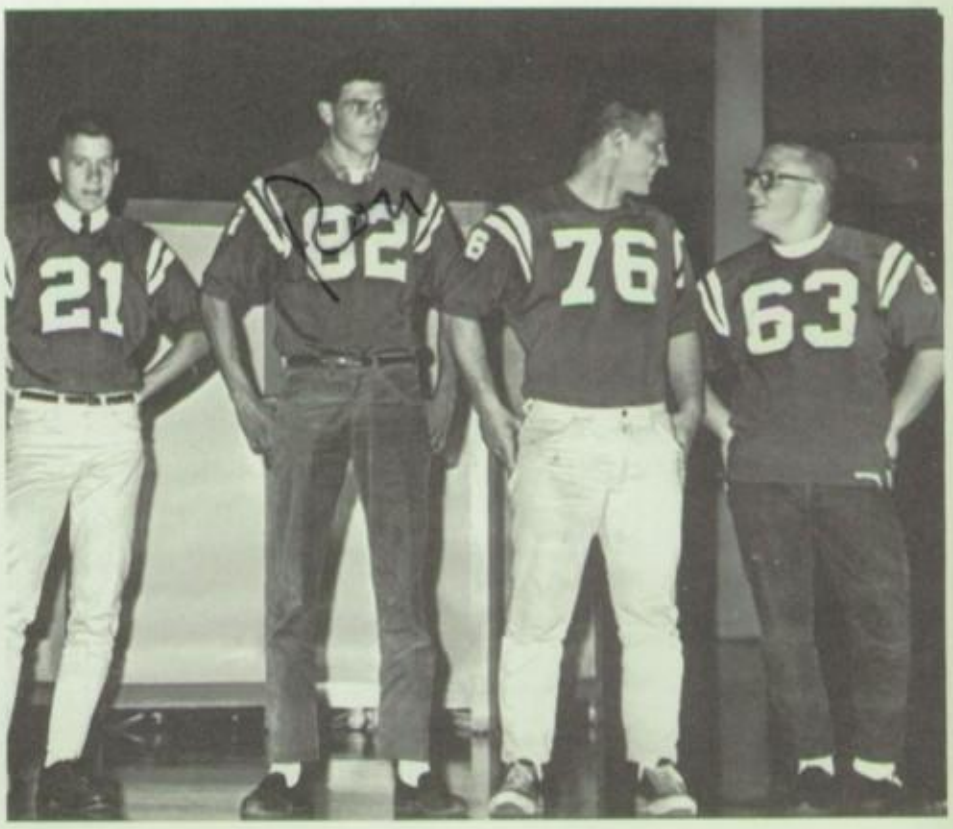
Students get taste of Shakespearean comedy.

Four members of Choralairs report to gym for Thanksgiving Assembly.

The team departs for Glide, leaving behind 500 students anxious for a victory.

Centrals rally girls lead the students in the school song.

Four of Centrals 1st string football players look a little dubious as they are presented to the student body.



Homecoming '64

Spirit at All-Time High

Foriegn exchange student, Dagrun Gielsirk sings a Norwegian folksong.

Seniors Top Talent

The main fund-raising event for Homecoming is Talent Night. The winning class must show the best ability in several catagories. Seniors placed First, Juniors placed Second and the Frosh came in Third. Tom Lindahl won the individual award and the Junior girls won the group trophy.

The nervous anticipation of a queen and her court, the pride of a job well done, and spirit at an all time high were all evident at our thrilling and successful Homecoming for 1964.

Four lovely and excited princesses prepare to be announced at the Homecoming game.

While many girls decorated for the dance, the boys readied the bonfire.

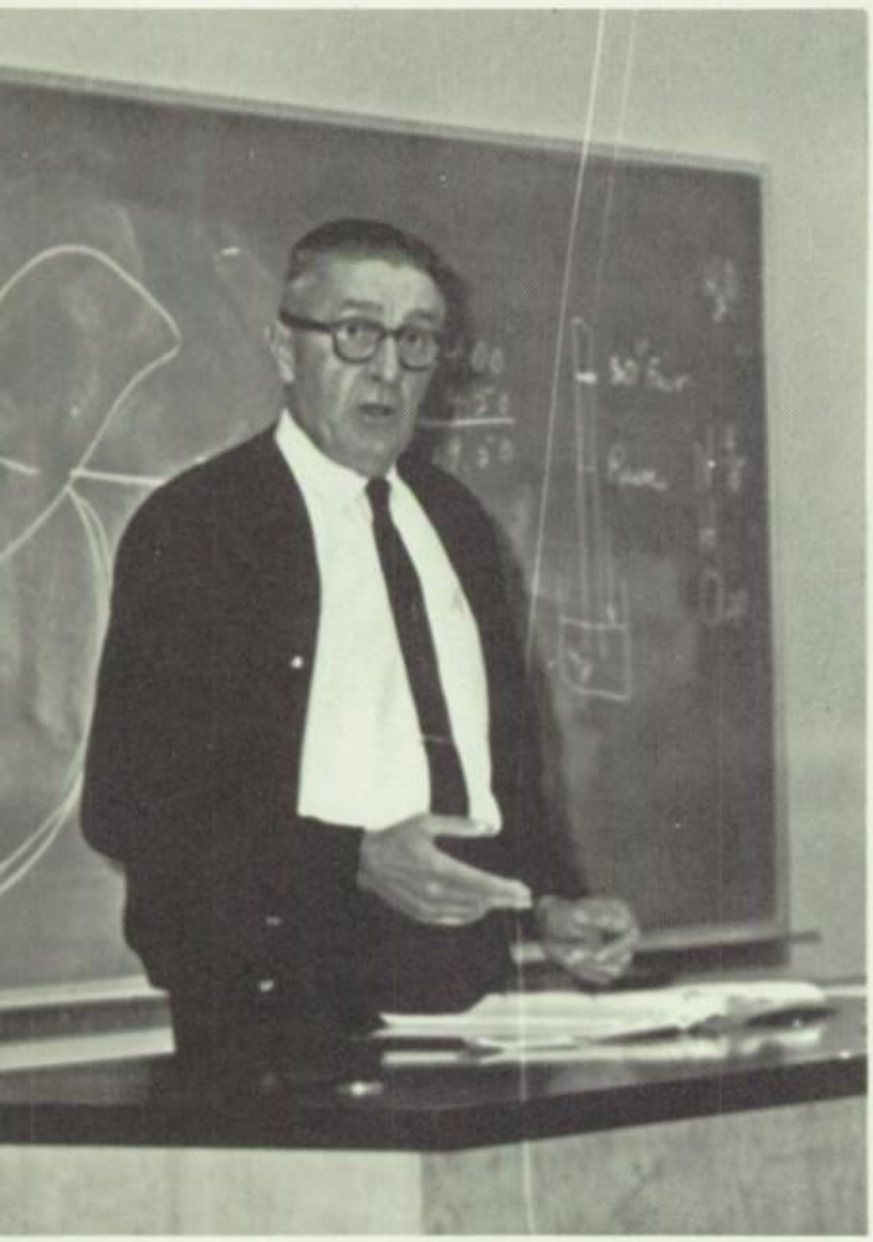
IN MEMORIAM



Gilbert (Gib) Loy ended his long career of teaching at Central High School on December 6 when he suffered a heart attack after bowling at Sweet Home.

Since 1953 the biology department had been his special domain and all sophomores learned to regard both the subject and the man with high respect. Currently he headed the advisors of the sophomore class and served on the audio-visual committee which had been working on the needs of the high school and district in equipment of this kind. Earlier in his years of teaching, he taught at Independence High School under Paul Robinson at two different periods. Alternating with farm activities between wars, he worked at teaching and promoting agricultural interests of the community. Under his guidance much of the planning for the county fairgrounds was completed, and he then acted as secretary-manager of the fair board. For many years he was in the Farmers' Union and at other times he served as president of the 4-H Leaders' Association.

The school board meets regularly to discuss and determine educational policies for the district. Members are Bud Warner, Keith Tow, Floyd Allen, George Lindahl; Chairman, Cliff Stump, Fred Calef, and Bob Larence.

School Board District 13J

Administrators

We are fortunate to have Clarence Mellbye, president of the Secondary Teachers Association, as Principal of Central High School. In his eight years at Central, he has taken a personal part in all school functions, winning the respect of students, parents and teachers.

Marlen D. Yoder in his past three years as superintendent of school district 13J has taken the responsibility of coordinating the various schools in the district, requiring that he be not only an educator, but outstanding in the field of public relations.

The Senior Class of 1965 will long remember Central and hopes that through its' hard work and accomplishments in four years it will long be remembered. The Junior-Senior Prom, Homecoming 1964, Talent Night, Freshman-Senior Dance and Student and scholastic activities are all functions that the class has worked long and hard on. We have endeavored to make this years senior class the best ever and to give underclassmen the opinion that their senior year can be just as thrilling, just as exciting, just as challenging and just as enjoyable.

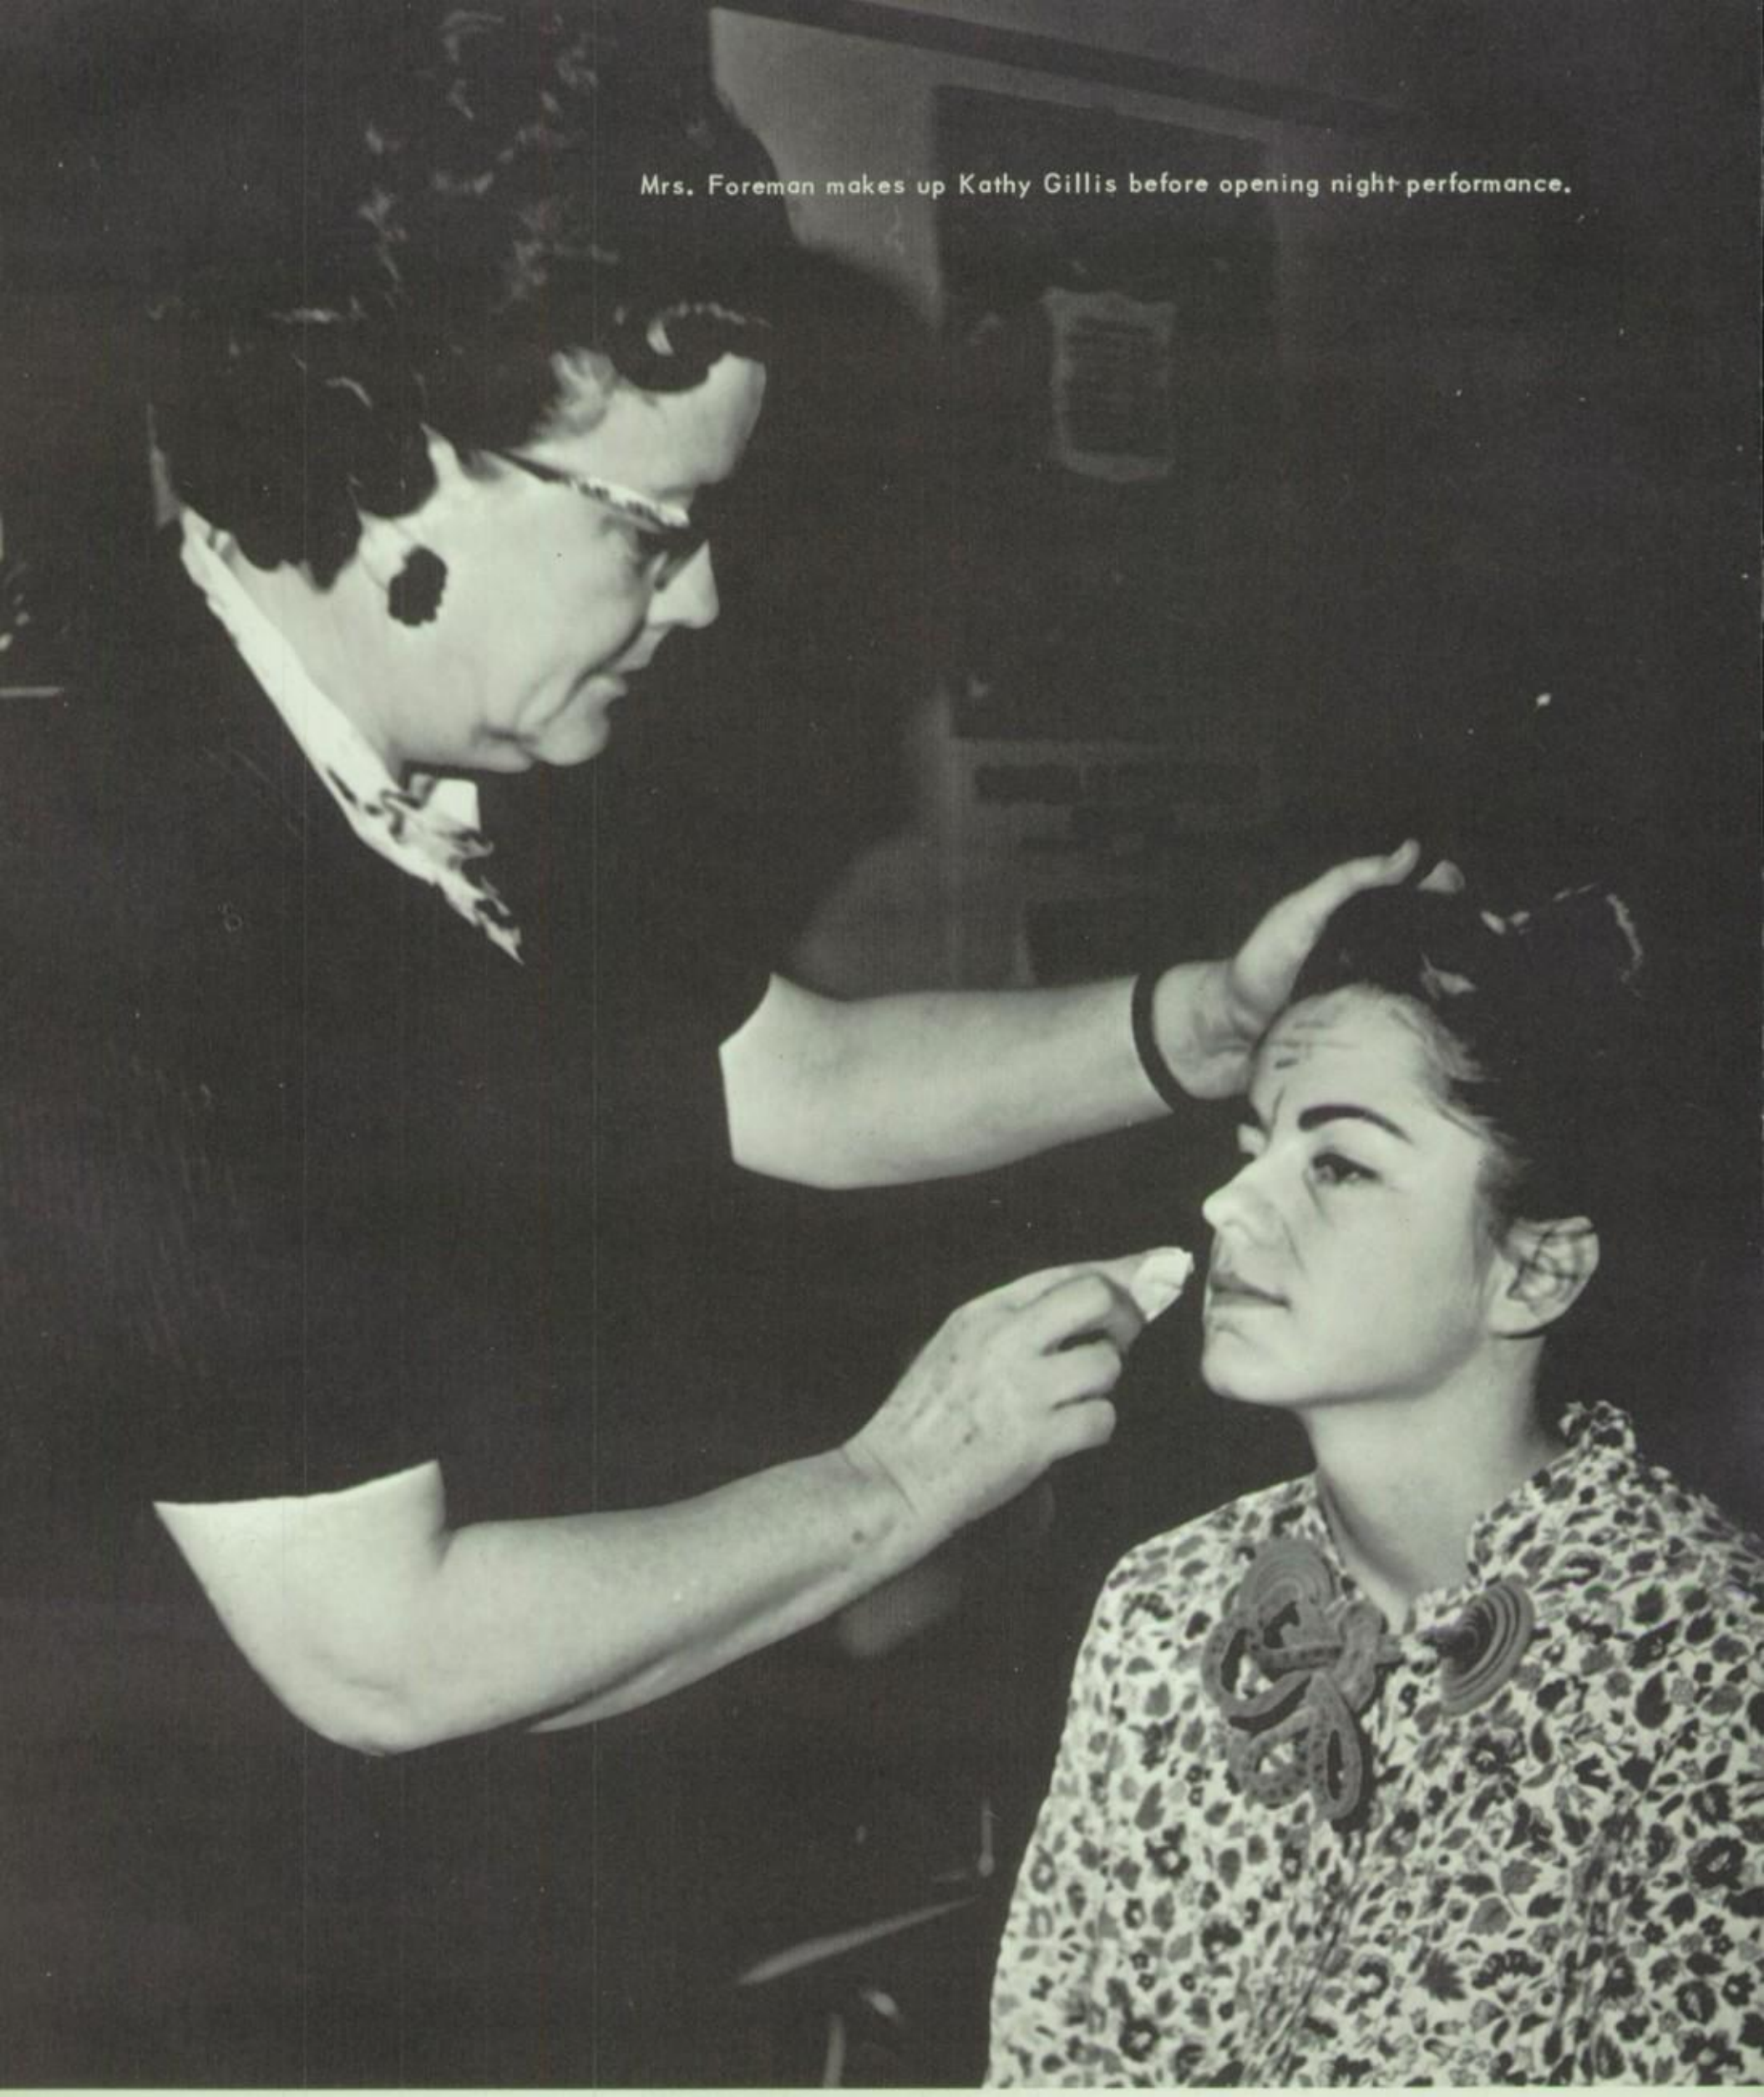
ACTIVITIES

A host of activities, games, and dances set a fast-moving pace at Central this year. Community service and many worthwhile money projects made this a rewarding and prosperous year. The weather provided unforgettable experiences in December with the Christmas Flood. With the beginning of the New Year, Centralites, turned their excitement to basketball, and thoughts of graduation.



Mrs. Foreman makes up Kathy Gillis before opening night performance.

"Doctors and Nurses"

The Senior Class presented the play, DOCTORS and NURSES, November 18, 19, and 20. The play was a combination of tense drama and hilarious comedy.

The play was directed by Mrs. Foreman with Masque and Gavel assisting.

Centrals Melodious Choralairs

Throughout the year, the Choralairs made numerous appearances around Central. They sang for the annual Thanksgiving assembly and Christmas Concert. In order to be selected for Choralairs, the student must have one year of experience in mixed chorus with satisfactory grades. Each candidate is auditioned individually in order to determine his or her musical ability. Every Spring, the choir presents an operetta which is one of their many money making projects. With the funds made from these projects, the choir makes a trip to British Columbia every four years. This hard working group is one of the prides of Central.

With all eyes on Mr. White, the Choralairs produce a beautiful hymn for the student body at the Thanksgiving Assembly.

Mixed Choir is for all students who are interested in competing for membership in Choralairs in the Spring.

Ensembles

Suzanne Cosgrove, Sherri Chasteen, Jodi Lamb, Lucille Harthun, and Chris Cosgrove make up this years Senior ensemble.

Swing Choir is made up of members of Choralairs who desire some outside singing.

Entertainment Plus

Dave Edling, president of the band, helped Mr. White direct the band at pep assembles and home games.

The dance band added entertainment to various functions during the year.

The Pep Band played a very important part at the home games and pep assembles. They were always willing to play and were openly welcomed by the student body.

The Central High School Band has acquired a fine reputation for its ability and drive. The band provides music for the public at the Christmas and Spring concerts. With its well known Pep Band and its Swingin' Dance Band, it is truly an asset to our music department.

Girls League

Girls League members are everywhere at Central!

Girls League started off this year with a potluck at Helmick Park for the incoming Freshmen girls. Later, the after game dance brought the Beatles close to home; followed by Santa Claus who brought a Merry Christmas into the homes of unfortunate children in our community. The Sweethearts Ball was presented in February to bring the couples together at Valentines Day.

Spring activities included the Twirp Days for the dressy and the casual dressed days. Ending these days was the girl ask boy Twirp Dance.

To end the year, the Freshmen for the next year are invited to come and bring their mothers to a tea welcoming them to our school. At this time, the Girls League Scholarship is awarded to a deserving Senior girl.

Squeals of delight are heard as the children walk down the line to receive their dinner of hot dogs, cake, and ice cream.

Rally Squads:

Lead School Spirit

Attractive and peppy Varsity Rally Squad members played an important part in Central's successful sports season by leading spirited and enthusiastic yells. Many new as well as traditional routines were performed by the five rally girls. From top to bottom--Queen Patti Allen, Ann Hill, Sylvia Dornhecker, Kathy Erickson, and Sharon Cobine.

The J. V. cheerleaders for 1964-65 were: Jeri Davis, Queen, Chris Lamb, Julie Davis, and Jane Winegar.

G.A.A.

The frequent bounce of a ball, the swing of a bat, and the scream of a participator accentuated an exciting, fun-packed year of sports for Girls Athletic Association. A rollicking intiation and slumber party is held in the fall to welcome all new members. The Annual Powder Puff football game was one of the many money-making activities performed for the members to raise funds for the Christmas Ball and Coast Trip held in the spring.

Lettermans Club

Primary concerns of the Lettermans Club were maintaining order at athletic events and providing programs at the games. Boys who had earned their athletic letters were easily recognizable in their traditional red sweaters with white "C's". Led by advisor Don Stensland, the honorary organization held a spirited initiation to introduce new members to the club.

Spanish Club

Students with a keen interest in learning about Spanish people and their language participated in many activities offered by Spanish Club. Throughout the year activities included the Christmas breakfast, beach trip, and Central Relays. Helping to co-ordinate these activities are advisor Mrs. Kuhns and President Mike McArthur.

The villian is greeted with hisses and boos from the audience in the Spanish Club skit.

French Club

To make students more aware of the way of life, customs and language of the French people was the purpose of the French Club. Highlights of the year included the AFS dinner, Christmas party, Central Relays, and a beach trip. French Club sponsored a very successful after game dance.

F.H.A.

Community and school service are one of our F.H.A. clubs goals. They take on projects during the year to raise money for field trips and fun-filled outings. Selling cook books and selling candied apples at games are two of their projects.

Carol and Barbara sell their wares.

F.F.A.

F.F.A. is an active club at Central. It holds a banquet each fall to honor boys who are outstanding in this field. Along with its many service projects F.F.A. has many outside activities, ski and fishing trips and our well known Donkey Basketball game are among them.

Gene works diligently.

F.T.A.

The members of F.T.A. are given a chance to go to other schools in the district to watch classes in session. They also help the teachers and sometimes actually take over a class for an afternoon.

Money making projects include cake sales which pay expenses for those members wishing to go to the district convention, and for the membership pins.

Darlene Kullander is the president of this club. She joined as a Sophomore to show her interest in the teaching career.

I.R.L.

Centrals International Relations League has increased its membership and activeness in the past year. Made up of more than twenty enthusiastic students, I.R.L. meets twice a month at different houses. President, Bill Farmer and Advisor, John Chamberlain, planned activities that gave the members a look at foreign affairs. Dagrun Gjelsvik, (left), our foreign exchange student from Norway explained about life in her homeland.

Lead by President Larry Fallin, Vice President Susan Brody and Secretary Jeanne Calef, the active Science Club members participated in such activities this year as their bottle drive. The money from the successful drive will be used for a club trip later in the year.

National Honor Society

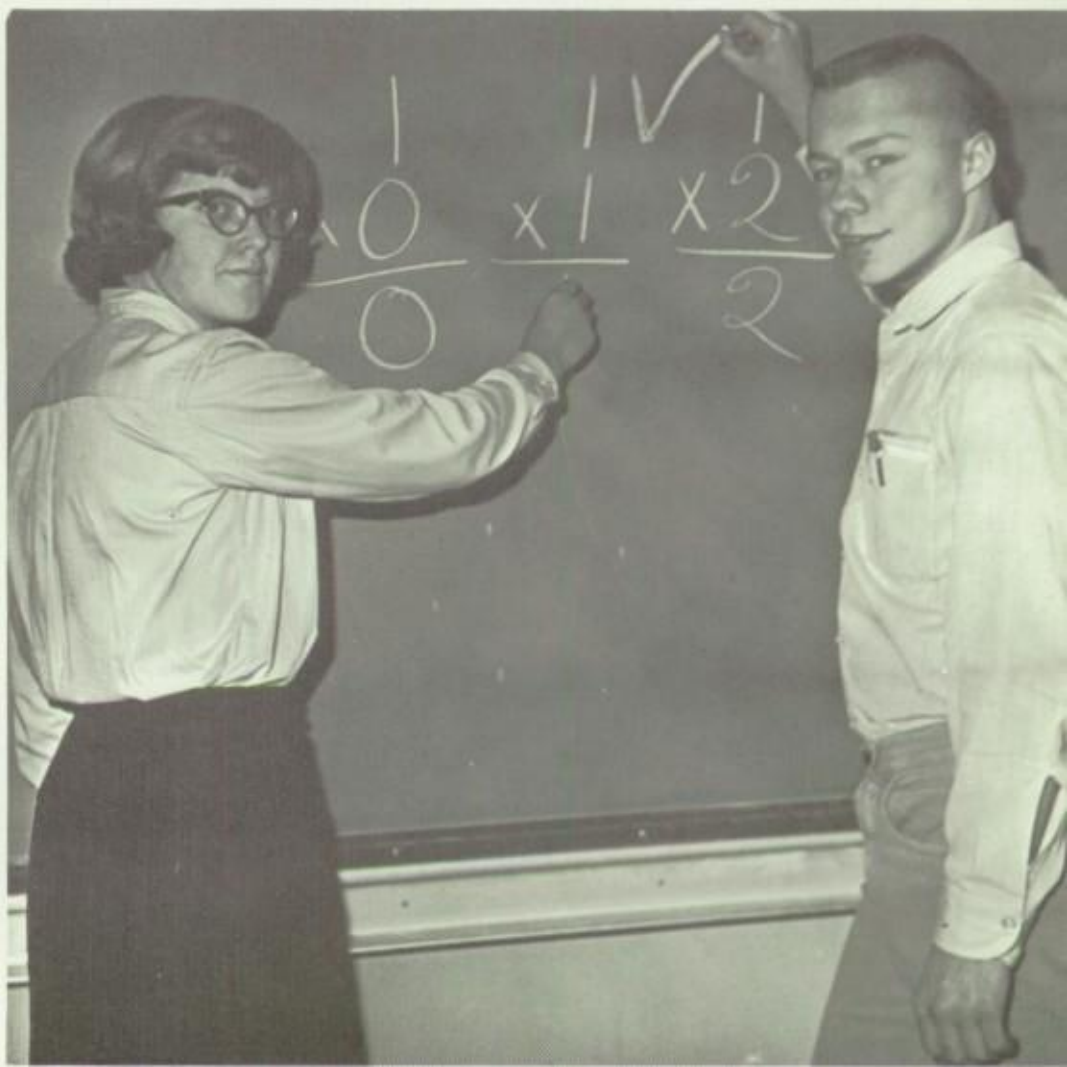
Purpose of the National Honor Society is to recognize students who have shown excellence in leadership, scholarship, service, and character.

Each year they sponsor a tapping assembly where the new members are notified of their selection. They are installed at a P.T.A. meeting in March.

The juniors must have a 3.5 grade average and seniors a 3.25.

Advisor: Mrs. Kuhns.

Carl and Milly show off their scholastic ability.



Centralian

Challenging to the staff of the Centralian was the job of devising a book with many new and different ideas. The members acquired experience through learning to layout pictures, write copy and spend after school hours working on the yearbook. Under the direction of Editor, Janice Paulsen and the supervision of Mrs. Cynthia Carter, the staff completed each deadline in spite of such obstacles as the Christmas flood.

Editor, Janice Paulsen, proof checks each page before the final deadline.

Ron Weaver, Art Editor, lends assistance as Sports Editors, Dave Edling and Barbara Schroeder look at pictures.

Senior Editors, Ann Hill and Kathy Dunckel work hard to meet the deadline.

The editors of this active staff are Kathi Gillis and Gail Smith. Below, they discuss the nest issue of this newsworthy paper.

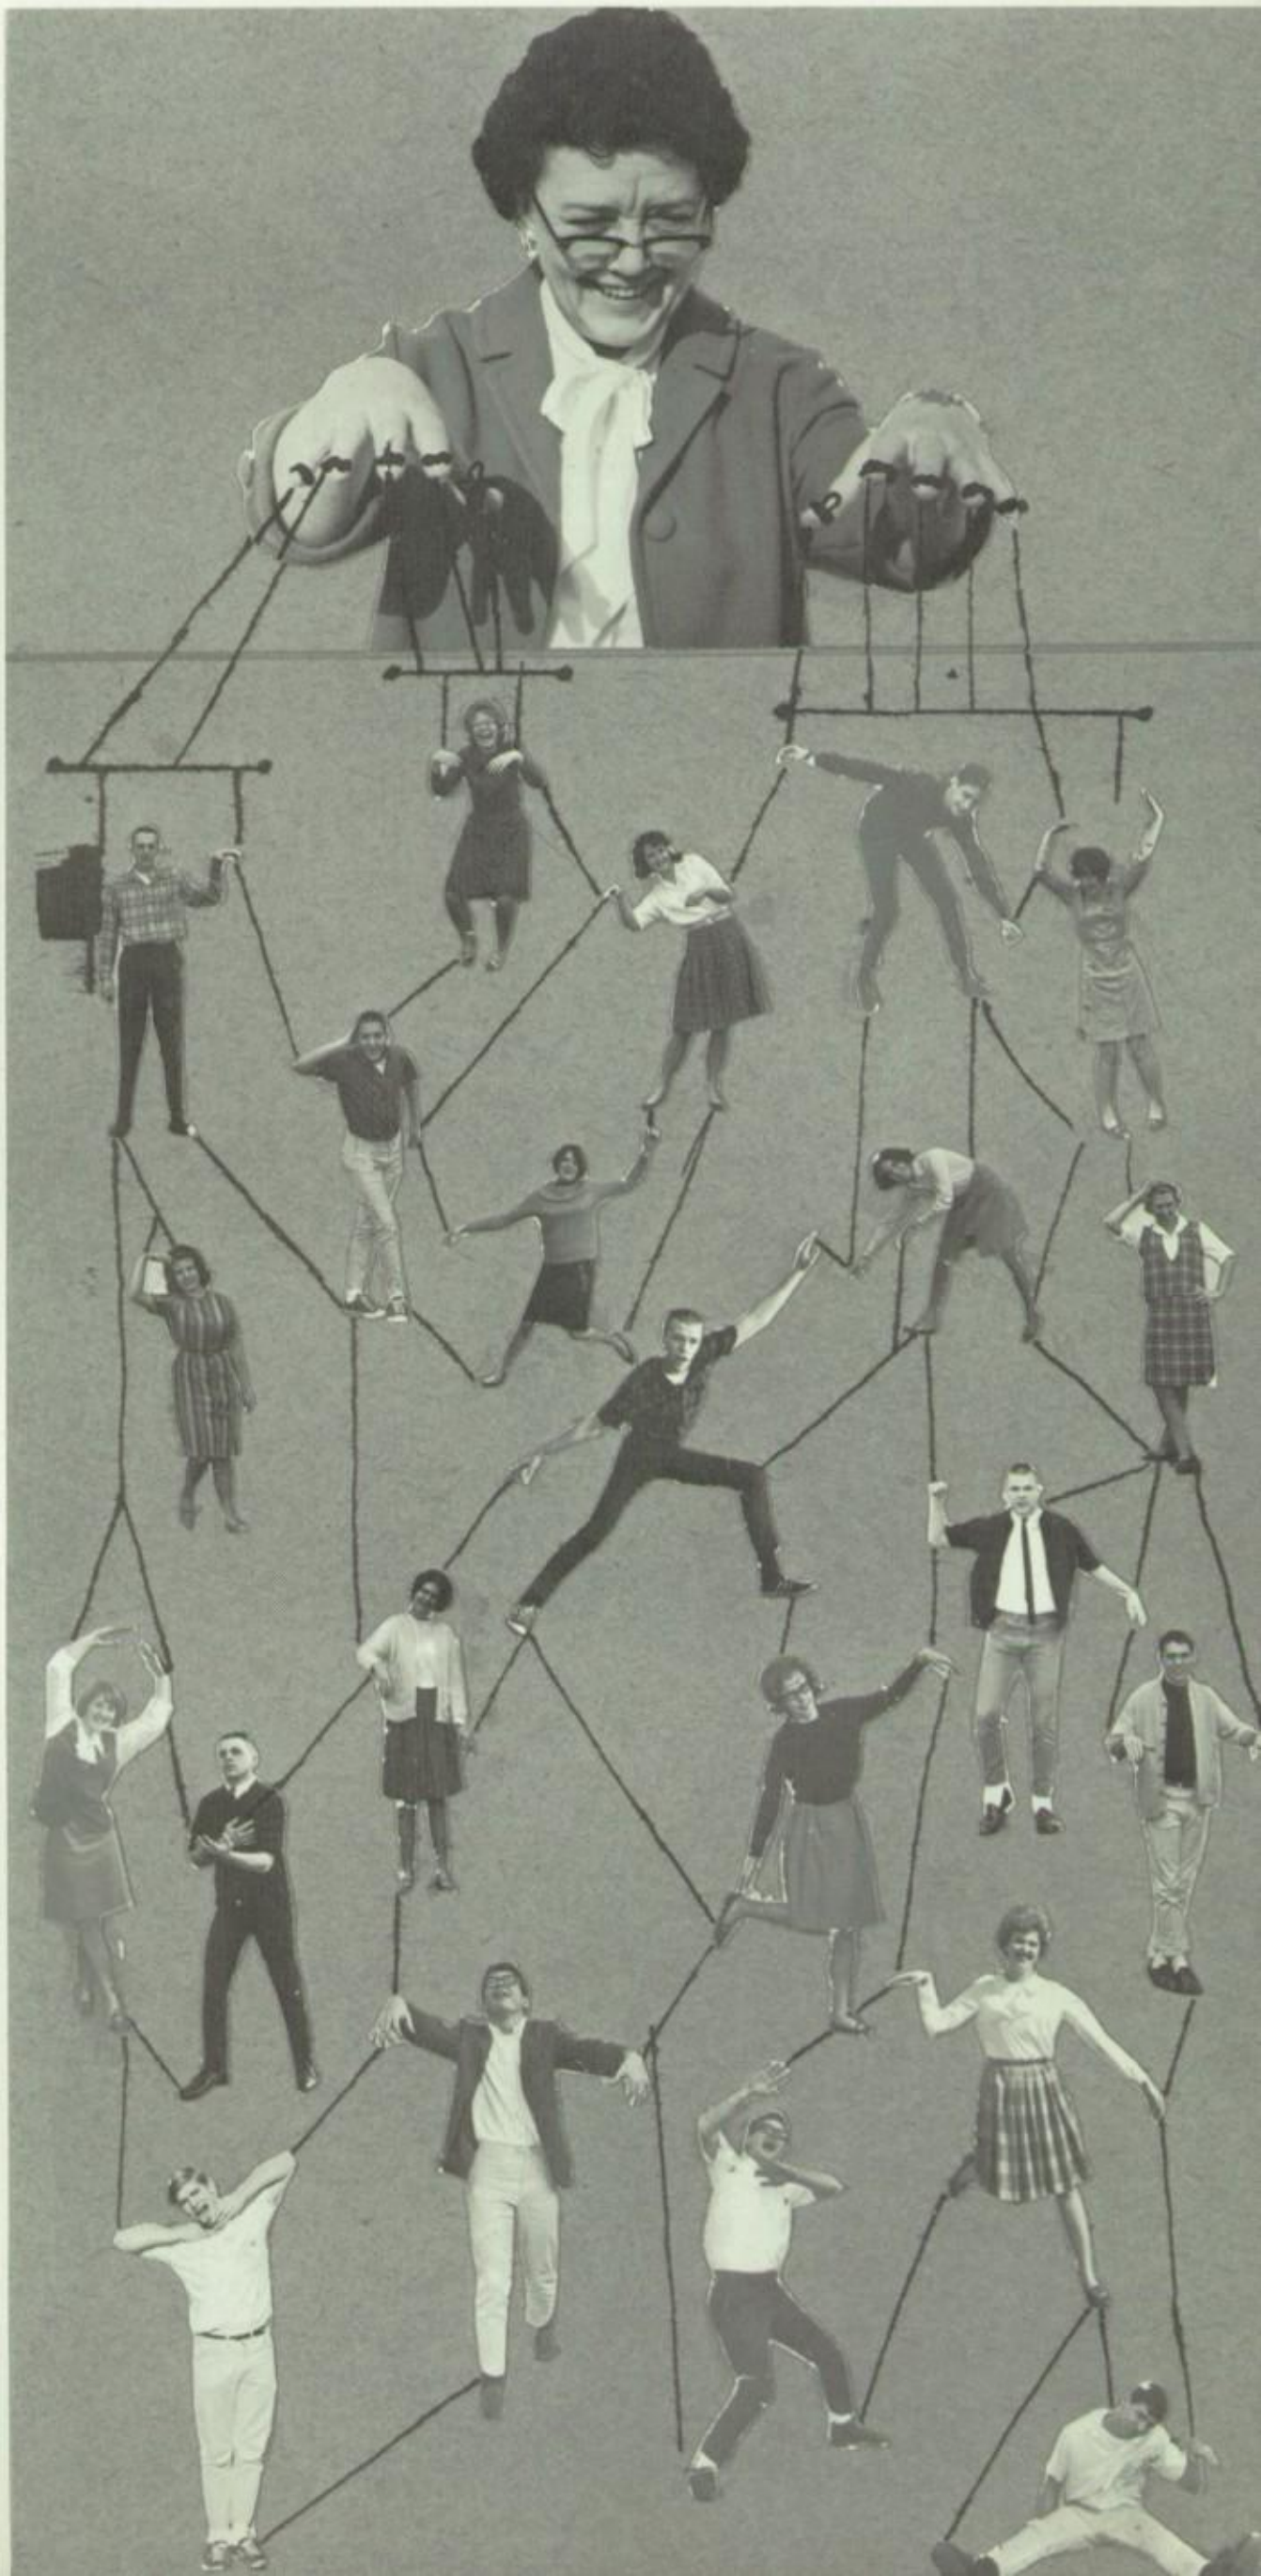
The Panther Press staff provides the Student Body with a bimonthly paper. Great improvements have been made on this years editions. Long hours and endless haggling are only a small part of managing a school paper.

Quill and Scroll

Students register for mock Presidential election sponsered by Quill & Scroll.

Masque and Gavel

Drama Club acquired a new name this year, along with a talented and vibrant group of members. In order to belong to Masque and Gavel, the student must take an active part in the production of school plays. Mrs. Katherine Foreman, an expert in this field, serves the club as both advisor and drama coach. The Senior Class presented a play in the fall and the whole organization put on the traditional All School Play.



School Store

All Centralites agree that the favorite spot to meet at noon is the School Store. The members give up their noon hour stroll around the halls to cater to the demands of other students.

This year the school store gave up their annual club activity of a coast trip to sponser a dance for the pleasure of the entire student body.

Mr. Davis, advisor of the club, is pictured below with the hard working members.

After game dances added enthusiasm and fun to the home games. Centrals newly-formed combo, the Baudrons, provided many enjoyable hours of music for the students. A variety of steps created by the individuals own imagination provided entertainment for the spectators and dancers as well.

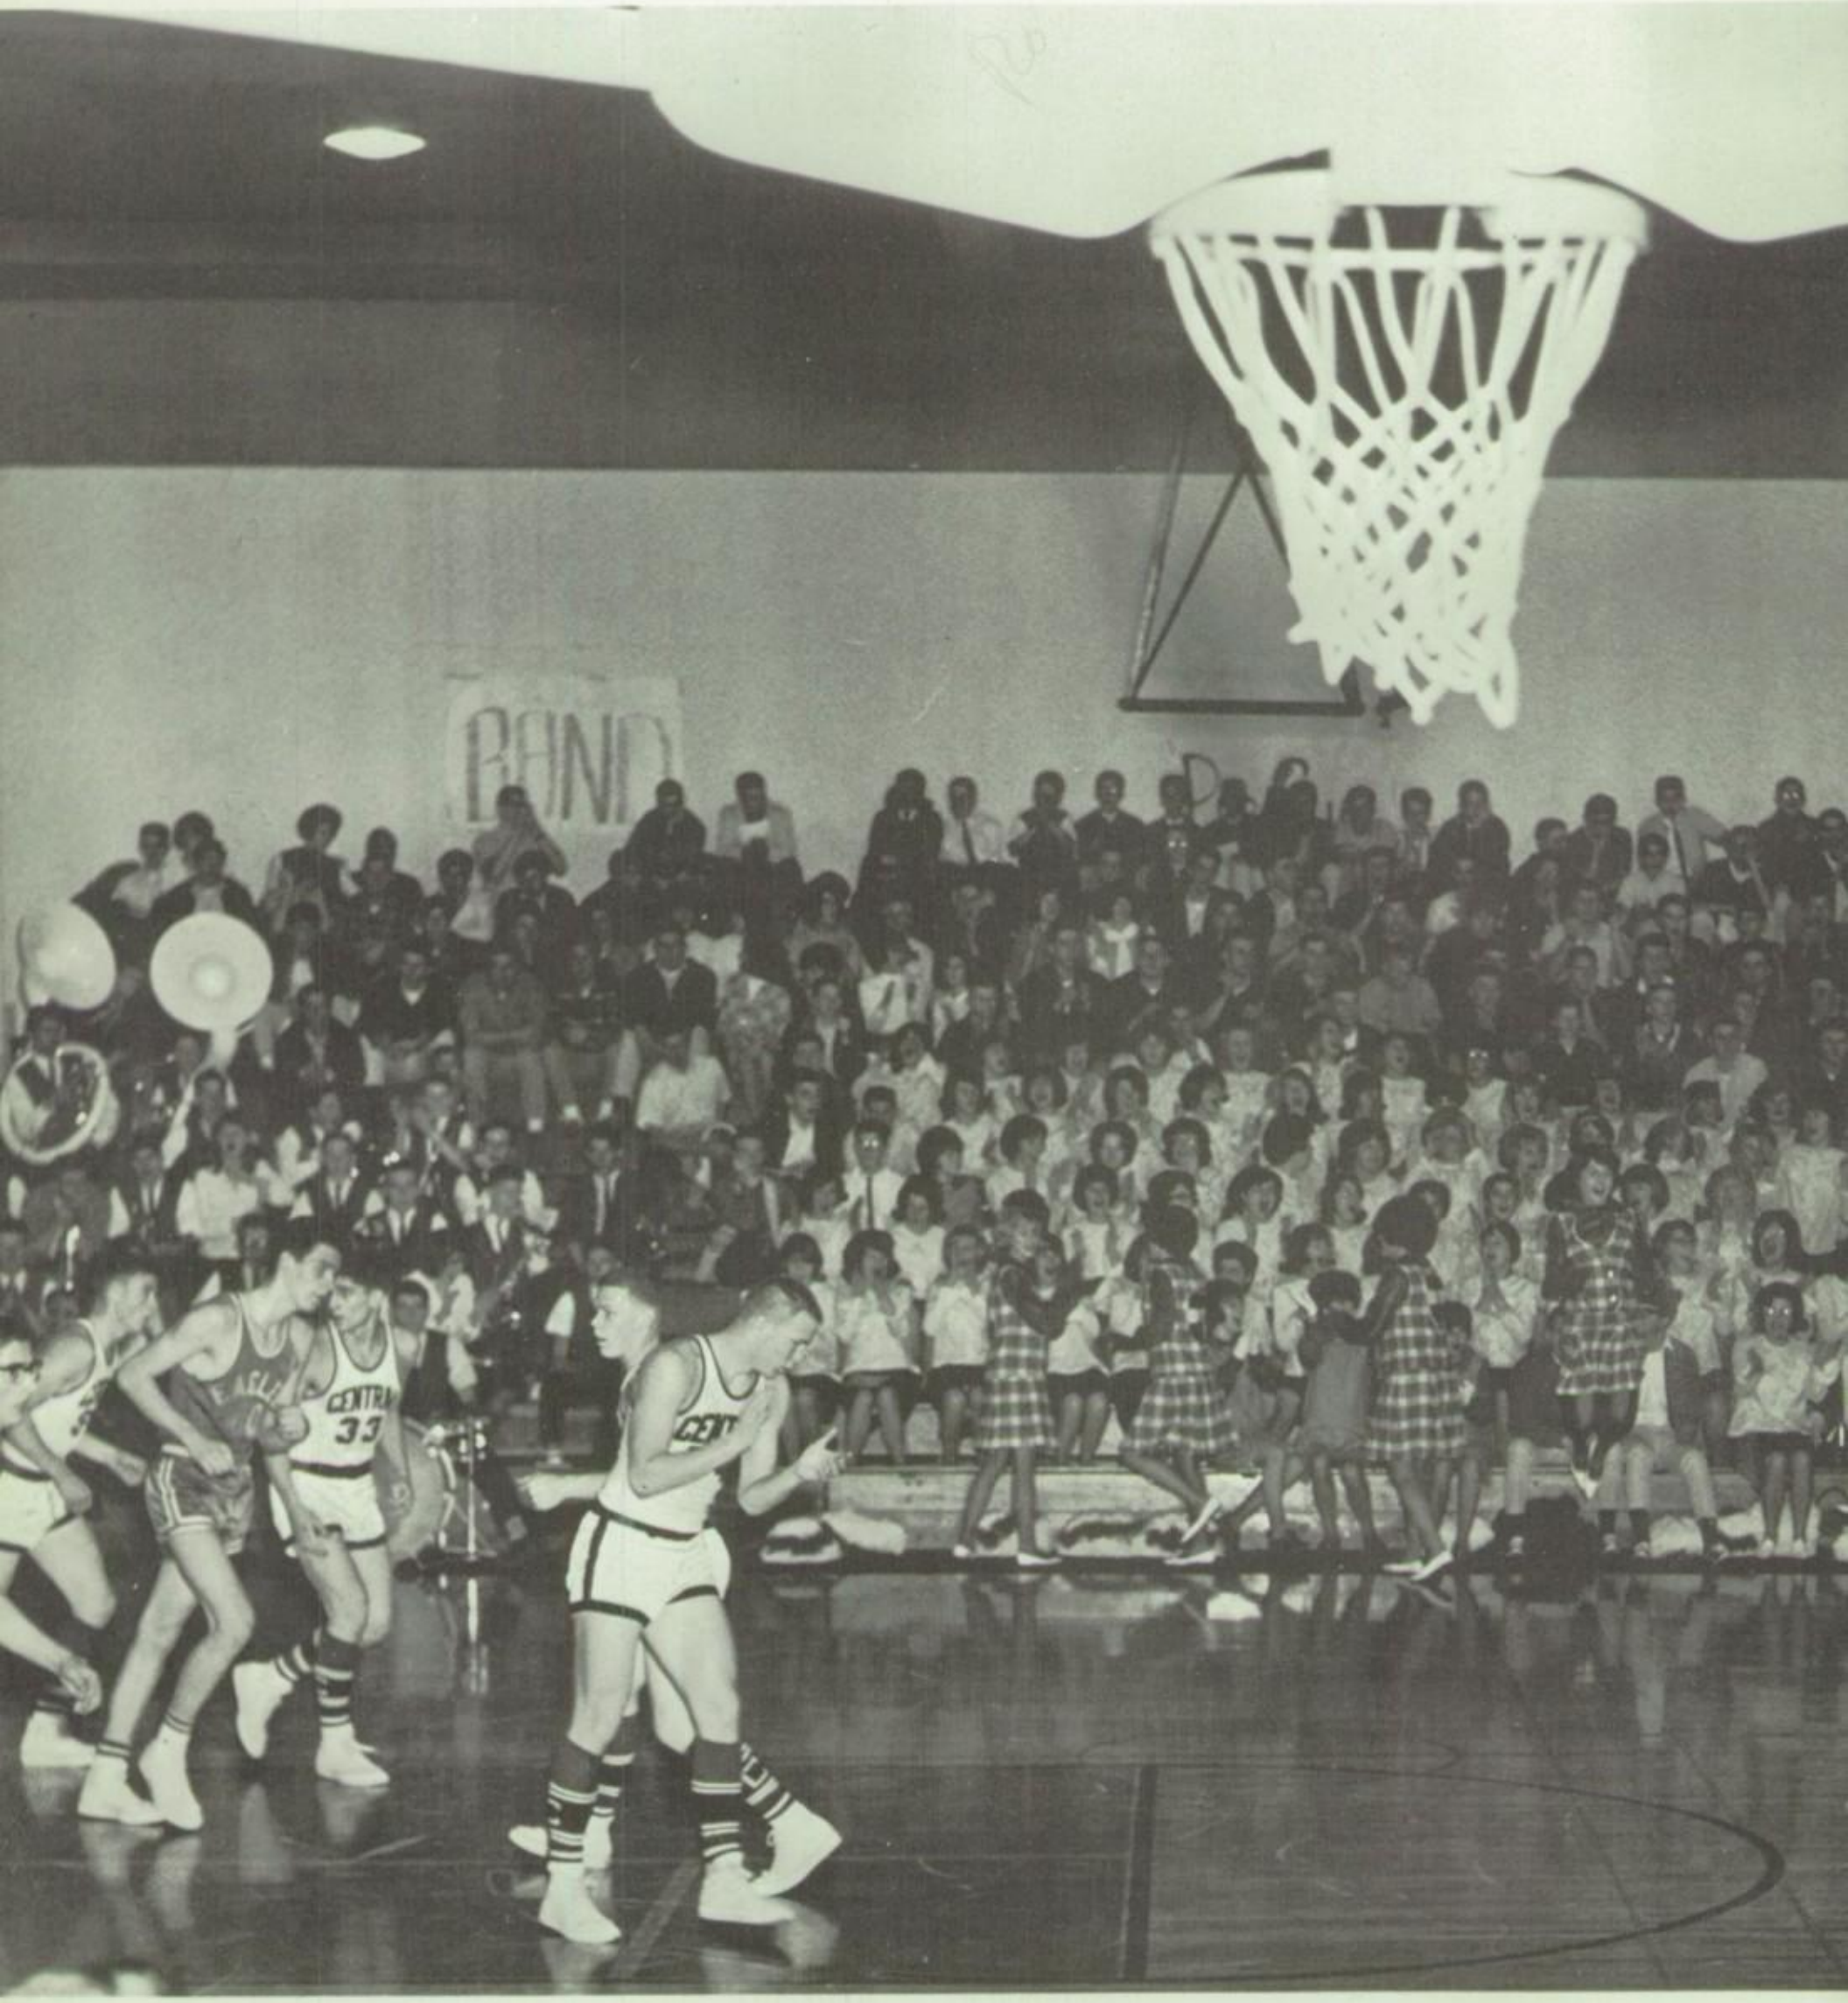
The dances are sponsered by various clubs and classes. They are not money making projects; but just for the students pleasure.

Students

"Work it out."

Many students danced to the live music of the Baudrons.

SPORTS



The Central Panthers fought hard battles this year; some to win; some to lose. Whether it was football, basketball, wrestling, track or baseball, the teams put their utmost effort forward. Win or lose, the student body was behind the Panthers in every contest.

In Action

There is a humorous side to everything and athletics are no exception. Although athletes must be serious, there is always an occassion when we see the funny side of them and their work.

We've got the Panthers on our team, they're GR-R-EAT!

Where's that fighting spirit?

I just love weight-lifting!

What would we have done without him?

Did you see that?!?!

UNDERCLASSMEN

The busy and talented underclassmen presented Central with a variety of activities. The Junior-Senior Prom, financed by the Junior Class, was the main function of the year. Many long hours of planning and work were put into this years highly successful Prom. The Sophomore Class prepared for their Junior year by making extra money by selling mistletoe and megaphones. The Frosh jumped into Central in high style by taking third in Talent Night.
